Write to: BARBIE Comics, 387 Park Avenue South, New York, NY 10016

Hey, kids — Since we print your name, age, city and state, please include them on your letters.

Dear BARBIE,

I just got done reading the April issue. I loved the cover. I have a large collection of Barbies.

I have all the BARBIE comics from issue #1 to issue #23. I am missing issues #23 and #24. Do you know where I can get them?

I want to thank my parents, Dean and Barb, for my birthday present. I got a Barbie doll for my birthday in February. Thanks Mom and Dad!

Sarah DeCayke, age 11
Johnstown, NY

Sounds like a terrific birthday, Sarah!

For back issues of BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION check with your local comic book stores. (You'll find them listed in the yellow pages under "Comics and Collectibles." Ask a parent or adult for help.) If they don't stock back issues of BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION, sometimes they can order the issues you want! Good luck!

By the way, you may want to ask a parent or adult about subscribing to BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION. That way every issue will come to you through the mail each month, and you'll never miss a single issue! You'll find a subscription form at the back of this issue.

Dear BARBIE,

I am interested in BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION. I enjoyed BARBIE #29.

I have a problem, though. I'm a 10 year old boy! I'm afraid to tell my friends that I enjoy BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION. Could you people at good ol' Marvel give me some tips? Am I the first male to write?

Jonathon Penn, age 10
Bay City, TX

The first male to write, Jonathon? No way! We get letters from boys and girls of all ages who enjoy reading BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION! We know that according to common stereotypes, it's girls who are interested in reading BARBIE — but individuals prove stereotypes wrong every day! Just check out the next two letters if you don't believe us! (Pay special attention to what Lance Snead has to say about why he enjoys reading BARBIE.)

As for dealing with your friends, well, that's a trickier problem. Growing up isn't easy, and kids can often be very mean to other kids. We think it would be great if you could share your interest in BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION with your friends — maybe they would discover that they'd enjoy BARBIE and BARBIE FASHION, too! But, we think this is a decision you need to make, based on what makes you feel most comfortable. We know it's not easy — good luck!

Dear BARBIE,

I'm a 17 year old young man that loves comics. I read X-MEN, THE AVENGERS, DARK-HAWK, and many more. But out of all of Marvel's books, BARBIE is one of the best.

In most of Marvel's books there is violence, deception, and fear. Often the hero solves one problem and another comes right along. Friends and family sometimes get hurt. BARBIE is different.

I bought my sister a subscription for her birthday. When I read one, I was hooked. People help each other, work together, respect each other, and love one another. BARBIE deals with decent stories about basic problems. And these problems are resolved through love and reasoning instead of violence and pain.

I also love the artwork. It reinforces the feeling of peace, love and hope. My favorite cover is issue #27. I practice drawing with it.

So until Barbie puts a pink skull on her chest and Skipper grows adamantium claws, make mine hope, love and friendship. Make Mine BARBIE!

Lance Snead

(Address withheld by request)

Wow, Lance! We couldn't have said it better! Thank you for a very thoughtful, warm letter.

Dear BARBIE,

Hi. I am a 14 year old boy that likes BARBIE comics. I know, it's strange that a 14 year old boy would like BARBIE, but I just do. My friends have laughed at me since the day I told them about it. All I can say to them is, "You don't know what you're missing," and they don't!

BARBIE isn't like the other comic books. It's not blood and guts. I feel that the world would be a better place if all the people who read comics full of violence would pick up a copy of BARBIE.

Rob Lawson, age 14
Houston, TX

Thanks for writing and sharing your feelings about BARBIE with us, Rob. We hope both yours and Lance's letter help Jonathon with his dilemma!
